

Please let there be no further deregulation of the media. We need greater media diversity by not placing all media in the hands of a few. Our eroding democracy is further at stake if more deregulation takes place.